EXCHANGE PORTFOLIO

The Bridging the Pacific exchange portfolio brings together a diverse background of printmaking students in conjunction with the 2016 Pacific States Biennial North American Printmaking Symposium. Participants’ geographical locations span from the east coast of the United States to the westernmost state in the country, Hawaii. Participants are encouraged to consider how their surrounding geography and environment affect their culture or personal identity.

Participants: 25 (about 5 students from each university)
Edition size: 26 (1 set for the UH Hilo Collection) - use interleaving paper

Print size: 11” x 14” – exact
Media: Any archival printmaking medium is acceptable

Due Date: Monday, September 26, 2016 (date received)

Ship to: Jon Goebel
UH Hilo Art Department
200 W Kawili St,
Hilo, HI
96720

USPS Priority Mail is recommended and will take 3-4 days to arrive.

Exhibition: October 7 – 31, 2016 at the East Hawaii Cultural Center
Artist reception Friday, October 28, 2016 at 7:00pm

STUDENT PANEL:

Students attending the 2016 PSBN Symposium are invited to participate in a student-led panel discussion about the portfolio theme. The panel will consist of 5 or more students (one or more from each university) and each student will have the opportunity to present their interpretation of how their surrounding geography and environment affect their culture or personal identity.

Time: Tuesday, October 25, 2016 from 2:00-3:00pm
Location: UH Hilo Campus Center Gallery